im gonna tell you the truth about us trolls. our story dad just kill him theres no need to tell him shit the art of trolling was actually started from humans at it wasn't called trolling it was called being a dick ack in the middle ages I was being made fun of because i wasn't human so i hided under a bridge but it was only a matter of time before they would find me. so those times i decided to pay them back and make fun of them and that's how it started and we send our arm take over the did you and your friends are the 2nd group of people that tried to stop us and you will die as they did
